

Crime Prevention Month Poster Celebration!

October is Crime Prevention Month! Throughout the entire month of October, NCPC will be hosting a poster celebration event. We invite you and your youth to participate. This is a fun and easy way to get youth thinking about crime prevention. Select posters will be featured on our poster gallery on NCPC's website, www.ncpc.org.

What: A poster event to celebrate Crime Prevention Month
This month the spotlight for the posters will be to draw

- Your safe community
- How you can show respect to your family, friends, or community
- McGruff the Crime Dog® a 30th birthday card

Who: Anyone under the age of 18

When: October 1, 2010 -October 31, 2010

How: Send posters with artist's name, age, and state information to NCPC at

National Crime Prevention Council
Attn: Joanna Li
2001 Jefferson Davis Highway
Suite 901
Arlington, VA 22202

Or send scanned copies or a photograph of posters to Joanna Li at jli@ncpc.org.

To receive stickers or your free copy of McGruff's new animated short, Samantha's Choice, the story of a young girl who is afraid to go to ballet class for fear of being bullied, call Joanna Li at 202-261-4156.

Please contact Joanna Li with questions at 202-261-4156 or jli@ncpc.org.

*All submissions become property of the National Crime Prevention Council and no award, prize, or remuneration is implied.