

Circle of Respect Book Club

The Circle of Respect Book Club features noteworthy and award-winning authors who participate in an in-depth podcast discussion. Podcasts are available at www.circleofrespect.org or via iTunes. Book club selections address audiences of all ages and engage them in discussions on topics ranging from bullying and self-acceptance to gang violence and community engagement. At the core of each selection is the element of respect and civility. Coming soon to the podcast series are

✚ Lucy and the Bully by Claire Alexander

✚ Michael Vey: Prisoner of Cell 25 by Richard Paul Evans

✚ Peacemakers in Action: Profiles of Conflict Resolution by the Tanenbaum Center for Interreligious Understanding

Read any good books lately?

NCPC is always searching for books to feature and authors to engage in discussion around the issues that communities care about. If you would like NCPC to consider a book for the Circle of Respect book club, email us at CircleSpeak@ncpc.org.