DEA's www.JustThinkTwice.com helps teens make informed, confident decisions about drug use.

New and improved Web site features include:

- Drug Facts. Facts about 30+ commonly abused drugs including expanded information on prescription drugs.
- Facts & Fiction. Helps teens understand the difference between the truth and common misconceptions, from marijuana legalization to societal costs of drug use.
- Consequences. Educates teens on the life-changing events that can go hand-in-hand with drug use including legal, health, financial, and social consequences.
- Teens Ask Teens. Teen volunteers answer questions about drugs, peer pressure, addiction, and more.
- Inside DEA. A look at the people behind the DEA badge, DEA history, latest drug-related news, and opportunities for teens to get involved in drug prevention.
- Drug Glossary. Site visitors can look up drugs by name, including street and prescription drug brand name, as well as by common slang.
- Find Help. Resources for teens who might have a drug problem, or are concerned about someone who does.

Check out www.JustThinkTwice.com for the resources teens need to make smart choices about drugs.
